

The Blue Rhythm Boys

"The Blue Rhythm Boys were an absolute joy to have in concert. They transported our concert hall into a Southern low-down "Jook" joint. Their easygoing nature quickly won over the audience (and myself) with humor appropriate to the vintage material. Comparisons? Imagine a session with Mississippi John Hurt, jamming with Django with Louis Armstrong, and the Kansas City Five as the backline!"
David Eisner President, The Institute of Musical Tradition

"Swingin' acoustic guitars, southern-tinged vocals, and the best repertoire East of Bucks County all combine to float your boat up the mighty Miss-i-sip!"
Dan Hicks

"Something along the lines of a jugband playing in a French bistro, it's their eclectic range that distinguishes these boys from the rest of the pack" Robert L. Doerschuk

"Their fingers are golden as they romp through vintage swing, Gypsy jazz, Delta blues and Hokum selections. They cover a lot of territory but never once are the Blue Rhythm Boys less than blue-ribbon stuff" Dan Wilging

The Washington Post

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 2002

"Like the pre war musicians they clearly admire The Blue Rhythm Boys and their guests collaborate all the while in deceptively effortless fashion. In fact, if they've learned one thing from listening to old discs, its how to have fun without making a fuss" Mike Joyce

For more information:
Visit www.bluerhythmboys.com

BLUES REVUE

"If you have a taste for elegant, rhythmic phrasing and sweet blues-bending instrumental and vocal harmony, you need this record " M.E. Travaglini

Select Appearances

The Taubman Museum of Art, Roanoke VA
The Leaf Festival, Black Mountain NC
Maryland Hall for The Creative Arts, Annapolis MD
Morgan Arts Council Concert Series, Berkeley Springs WV
Creative Alliance, Baltimore MD
GottaGetGon Fest, Ballston Spa NY
The Ramshead, Annapolis MD
The Birchmere, Alexandria VA
The Kennedy Center, Washington DC
Music on Mainstreet, Canajoharie NY
Institute of Musical Traditions, Tacoma Park MD
The Mainstay Rock Hall MD
The Globe Theatre, Berlin MD
Western Maryland Blues Festival, Hagerstown MD
Bluebird Blues Festival, Prince Georges Co. MD

Radio

WAMU FM National Public Radio
Neal Conan's "Talk of the Nation"
WAMU National Public Radio, Metro Connection
WRNR, Annapolis MD
WAMC FM Northeast Public Radio /Dancing On Air
Jay Unger and Molly Mason, Albany NY